

Friends of Hartman Reserve Endowment Fund

About Friends of Hartman Reserve

Hartman Reserve is a 340-acre woodland in the heart of metropolitan Black Hawk County where visitors experience nature; participate in educational programs, activities, and events; and learn from the exhibits, library, and critters housed in the state-of-the-art Nature Center built with funds raised by Friends of Hartman Reserve.

Friends of Hartman Reserve (FoHR), Inc., embraces its mission “to support Hartman Reserve and its service to our communities through volunteerism, expertise, advocacy, and gifts.” This Friends network carries out its mission by supporting:

- the preservation and protection of this unique natural area
- environmental education programs
- accessible opportunities for public leisure and recreation

Your Gift Will Keep on Giving

Gifts of time, talent, and treasure have allowed FoHR to provide essential support to programs, projects, and services that could not otherwise be available to our communities. Additionally, over its 30 years of existence, FoHR has worked toward and has now established the Friends of Hartman Reserve Endowment Fund, which assures that Hartman Reserve receives financial support from its Friends each year for perpetuity.

With your gift to the Endowment Fund, you will enjoy the many benefits of our Friends Network. Additionally, your gift will have ongoing and endless benefit to Hartman Reserve.
